New Italia Culinary and Cultural Pavilion

San Jose, CA – Everything you want to learn about Italian food and culture is all in one convenient location this year—the new Italia Culinary and Cultural Pavilion.

On Saturday August 5th, food will fly at the Festa! Award-winning pizza tosser John D’Ambrosio, of Giorgio’s Italian Food and Pizzeria, will demonstrate the art of the perfect pizza toss! Yes, you can try this at home!

Also in the Pavilion, how to make classic pasta sauce with Zanotto’s Market. Chef Joe Lucito will whip up sausage and spinach bread. The chef from Milan Restaurant will walk us through Gnudi. And Barilla Pasta Company will demonstrate how to make perfect pasta.

On display in the Pavilion, the Sicilian Corretto. The cart is a piece of history. Learn all about it, including how it came to be in San Jose. There will also be an orientation on the Roman Encampment, a living archeology experience. Plus, discussions with Italian authors and cultural experts and many special displays, including highlights from St. Joseph Day.
